

DAVID MARVEL

David Marvel is a farmer from southern Delaware. He grows grain, cereal crops, fruits, and vegetables on his family farm. David has served on numerous agricultural boards locally, regionally, and nationally - always striving to educate others of the importance of agriculture.

He started the Delaware Farm to School Program, as well as the first Growing Hope Globally project in Delaware. David also served as an executive board member for the National Farm to School Network, was an advisor on the Enhancing Food Security in the Northeast (EFSNE) USDA-funded Agriculture and Food Research Institute grant program, and is the past president of the Fruit and Vegetable Growers Association. On three separate occasions, David hosted WISHH strategic partners from Africa and/or Latin America as they participated in WISHH school meals training supported by the USDA Cochran Fellowship program.

At this time, David is Vice President of the Kent County Farm Bureau, a board member for the Food Bank of Delaware, and is a member of the Delaware Farm and Food Policy Committee.
